Celebrate July 4th with WeGo

Special event train and bus service makes attending easier

NASHVILLE – It's going to be a big party and WeGo Public Transit can help families celebrate the Nashville Let Freedom Sing! Fourth of July event with safety and ease. There will be special WeGo Star train service to and from downtown. All bus routes will operate on a Sunday schedule with final departures at 11:15 p.m. Bus riders are encouraged to use the Elizabeth Duff Transit Center at WeGo Central, located downtown, for the bus ride home. Road closures and congestion may require unexpected detours of stops downtown. Organizers say the event is one of the largest fireworks show in the nation. The concert will feature headliner Brad Paisley and the Nashville Symphony. A Family Fun Zone will provide plenty of activities for kids.

WeGo Star

July 4th train tickets are available for purchase now on TicketsNashville.com. Round-trip tickets cost $15 with a $2 processing fee and cannot be purchased at local train stations TVM's. The tickets will remain on sale until 24 hours before the event, or until the train is sold out. 650 tickets are available. Riders will receive one ticket for the round-trip and must present it to receive a colored wristband for the return trip. Children aged four and younger will not need a ticket to board but are required to sit in a parent or guardian's lap. Weekday WeGo Star tickets and monthly passes will not be accepted for the July 4th train.

The return train will leave Riverfront Station one hour after the conclusion of the fireworks show. Riders will need to show their wristband to reboard the train.

Customers requiring special accommodations should call 615-862-5950.

The WeGo Star will depart to Nashville at the following times:

Lebanon: 4:00 p.m.
Hamilton Springs: 4:08 p.m.
Martha: 4:15 p.m.
Mt. Juliet: 4:25 p.m.
Hermitage: 4:35 p.m.
Donelson: 4:45 p.m.
Riverfront: 5:00 p.m.
