WeGo Star Incident

NASHVILLE – This afternoon at approximately 4:32 p.m., a person came in contact with an outbound train while on the railroad tracks near the Donelson Train Station at Shady Grove Road. No injuries have been reported among the 32 passengers onboard at the time. The current status of the person struck is unconfirmed.

Passengers awaiting the second train leaving downtown Nashville from Riverfront Station were provided a bus bridge to the Donelson Station. From there, all passengers were able to board another train to continue their commutes home.

The Nashville Metropolitan Police Department and the WeGo Operations and Safety staff are onsite, and train staff are fully cooperating with the ongoing investigation.
