WeGo Star afternoon service impacted by freight train derailment Buses to take Star passengers to train stations

NASHVILLE – This afternoon’s WeGo Star trips will operate by bus from Riverfront Station due to a freight train derailment preventing the Star from operating as scheduled.

Passengers planning to catch the 4:20 p.m. train from Nashville will be transported via bus from Riverfront Station to Donelson and Hermitage Stations. Customers needing to travel to Mt. Juliet, Martha, Hamilton Springs, or Lebanon will need to catch the 5:10 p.m. or 5:55 p.m. buses at Riverfront Station for their return trip.

A contingency plan for service for the rest of the week is being developed. Check our social media accounts and website for updates.

About WeGo Public Transit

The Nashville Metropolitan Transit Authority (Nashville MTA) and the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) are operating bodies of WeGo Public Transit, which serves 25 local bus routes, nine regional bus routes, and one train serving Davidson and Wilson Counties.
